The European University of the Seas (SEA-EU) at Kiel University (CAU)
Leibniz-Str. 3, 24118 Kiel, Germany | +49 431 880 5917 | SEA-EU@kms.uni-kiel.de

The SEA-EU Team of Kiel University is currently looking for:

a student assistant in the area of e-learning.

The position comprises 30h/month and is initially limited to three months. However, we are interested in working with you on a longer basis.

‘SEA-EU’ - ‘The European University of the Seas’ belongs to one of the European University Alliances funded by the EU since 2019. Under the leadership of the University of Cádiz (Spain), and together with the partner universities of Western Brittany (Brest, France), Gdańsk (Poland), Split (Croatia) and Malta, Kiel University plans to enhance the quality of interdisciplinary marine science education across all faculties of the participating universities. SEA-EU aims to strengthen links between education, research and innovation, as well as to foster social engagement and environmental responsibility.

The student assistant will support us in following activities:

- Primary focus: Support in the creation of MOOCs (massive open online courses) by creation of videos, animations, text and implementation of accessibility
- Support of other e-learning projects by similar tasks
- Organisational matters (emails, taking minutes)

Necessary requirements:

- Experience in video making and creation of animations
- Experience in designing online media
- Experience in the area of e-learning
- Ability to work independently and creatively
- Very good German and English speaking and writing skills
- Good communicative competence

Desirable, but not necessary:

- Enthusiasm for e-learning
- Experience studying abroad

What we offer:

- Insights into working in an exciting new EU initiative
- A chance to be creative
- Working in an international team
- Payment according to the salary scale for student assistants at Kiel University

The working hours are flexible to a certain extent. Since we are interested in working together with you on a longer basis, you should continue to be enrolled at Kiel University for some time. To apply, send a short letter of motivation (about half a page) and your CV (combined in one PDF) to Miriam Beneragama (mbeneragama@kms.uni-kiel.de). For questions please contact her.

Application deadline is the 31th of January 2021.
We are looking forward to your applications!
